

SOCIAL MEDIA POLICY

At Dingo Den Animal Rescue we value being able to connect directly with our fans and followers through various social media platforms. Whilst the majority of our supporters are respectful and courteous, there may be instances where differences of opinion may lead to disagreements. To ensure that these conversations remain civil, we ask that your comments meet the following guidelines. Failure to do so may result in your comments being removed or your account being blocked from our page.

Behaviour we will not tolerate:

- Personal attacks, bullying, trolling and abuse
- Racism, sexism or other forms of hate-speech or intolerance
- Defamatory, obscene, offensive, threatening, abusive, derogatory, pornographic, vulgar, profane, indecent or otherwise unlawful content
- Posting offensive or graphic images, including deceased or mutilated animals
- Posting personal information pertaining to other individuals or groups

Behaviour we discourage:

- Making generalisations about someone based on a single comment or opinion
- False, misleading or accusatory comments
- Comments made in poor taste

Behaviour we encourage:

- Treating others as you would expect to be treated
- Engaging in civil and polite conversations
- Keeping discussions relevant to the topic
- Considering others viewpoints
- Agreeing to disagree rather than engaging in repetitive attacks on those with differing views

We will also remove any spam or unsolicited advertising posted on our platforms.
